NOVEMBER FUN!

The Redcoats

November's activities and events were fantastic, with gorgeous weather and busy, busy fields for all! As you know, the Fowler's Event was a great success, and we believe the Redcoats did not win the battle. Yummy partridge pie was served for the day, with folks already talking about a spring gathering with the long rifles. Plan on joining us for more fun this May.

The serious score judges!

Clays Shooting Luncheon Fun

As always, the Covey Clays Shoot was such a great outing, with several of the “Girls Gone Wild!” in attendance. Although score cards were optional, we had stiff competition with all the shooters, especially the ladies. Fast and challenging targets were the rule of the day, along with a beautiful morning to enjoy. Luncheon in the field at the Covey by the lake was indeed chilly, but all managed with a big bonfire and hearty fare. This continues to be an annual favorite!

Enjoying the McNamaras

Speaking of chilly, the Walking Dog Trials held on November 23 was indeed for good sports only. With a full lineup of pups, the day was grand, yet a bit frosty. Tim and Jean Aiken's youngest pup led the challenge for the blue ribbon, and the following awards ceremony at the Clubhouse luncheon was filled with laughter- among awards were for most patient dog, best looking master and best trained dog (according to Jesse). Another annual favorite...

Precious Pups

Good looking Ladies!

Thanksgiving's Friday was wonderfully active, with families enjoying Timberdoodle with fishing, clays, fields and almost forty guests enjoying a game luncheon. What a weekend filled with activity, and, of course, that fun trip to the Barbour outlet for early Christmas treats.

Fun shooting with Bill Mitchell

We are so looking forward to the Frostbite Shoot in the Orchards, with fifteen pegs and a wonderful lineup of dogs for tall, fast birds. This should be a good show, with almost fifty guests for the blessing of the birds luncheon celebration.

Jesse is planning to keep Upland Kennels open for you through Christmas for your convenience. Let him know if you would like to reserve a spot for your pup during the Holidays.

Plan on joining us for our Annual Open House here at the Club on December 14. Lots of good eats and cheer, with great music and the roaring fireplace to enjoy. Please come hungry!

All the Timberdoodle Team wishes you a merry Holiday season!
